

Testing

Prerequisite: 31301

Credit Hours: (2)

This course reviews the history of language assessment, introduces principles and theories of test designing, gives training in designing and evaluating different types of tests, and considers the assessment of learners' achievement of language skills.