

Practical Teaching (Practicum)

Prerequisite: 31301, 31304

Credit Hours: (2)

This course requires some hours of observation time and a period of work experience as part of the study. Students must have at least 16 hours of observation in EFL classes of different universities, and prepare their reports for further discussion. The course also enables students to prepare lesson plans for various subjects of teaching EFL based on topics covered in their classes. After the observation period, the students are supposed to teach in different EFL classes under the supervision of their professor, and as many hours he/she deems necessary.
